Since I stopped punishing my learners and started listening to them, understanding their challenges and correcting them, they now behave and perform better.
Since I stopped punishing my learners and started bringing them closer, understanding their challenges and correcting them, they behave better and respect me out of love not fear.
LET’S WORK TOGETHER AS PARENTS AND TEACHERS TO DISCIPLINE OUR LEARNERS POSITIVELY.

Parents, going to school and interacting with teachers about our children will enable us to understand why they misbehave so we can guide them without using punishment.
